TENNIS FOR THE GREATER NEW ORLEANS AREA

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2022

NOMATA ON THE MOVE THIS FALL

NOMATA was the proud sponsor of the Raphael Village FunRaiser Tennis Tournament on October 7th and 8th. There were more than 70 doubles teams that participated. NOMATA helped with court assignments and monitoring of match play.

NOMATA in conjunction with Friends of Atkinson-Stern and NORDC hosted a successful Hispanic Heritage event on Saturday, October 15th at Atkinson-Stern Tennis Center with approximately 40 participants attending this fun event.

NOMATA'S FUN FALL CLASSIC TENNIS TOURNAMENT - Rescheduled

Due to a lack of participation, the NOMATA Fun Fall Tennis Classic will be rescheduled to Spring 2023. We will do a one-day fun tennis event to thank the New Orleans Metropolitan area for its commitment to tennis. Stay tuned for details in upcoming newsletters and NOMATA's website.

PAST TENNIS APPRENTICE SUNDAY FUNDAY TENNIS

NOMATA will be hosting a Tennis Apprentice Sunday Funday Round-Robin Play event for our past Tennis Apprentice and Step-Up program members on December 11th from 1PM-3PM at the City Park Tennis Center. This is a perfect opportunity to have fun and play tennis with your fellow tennis community members. NOMATA representatives will be there to help you create and sign-up teams for league play, flex matches, or answer any other questions you may have. If interested, please call or text Kim Gambino at 504-289-7737 to register.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR AWARD WINNERS

Congratulations to Alvertha Penny, member of the NOMATA Board for winning the 2022 Nehemiah Atkinson Diversity and Inclusion Champion Award. Congratulations to Lynda Santopadre for winning the 2022 League Legend Award.
